Dear Tom,

Alan, - shall not have time to get up to Cambridge.
I got into NYC from Phila some time on Sunday morning, April 1st, give a talk that evening, & have a meeting with Ford Foundation people on Tuesday & go on west to Syracuse & on Thursday to Colgate for a 2 day conference on Hypnosis. (but) there be a chance of your fitting down to NY on the Monday or Tuesday?
Someone sent me a clipping from the Crimson, reporting the attack on you & Alpert - on the ground that mushroom experiences weren't verbal! Which is, of course, one of the prime reasons why they are so valuable! Ask your opponent to read my paper given at the MIT Centennial last year on Education in the Non-Verbal Humanities.

It is not yet in print: but MIT have mimeographed copies, & I think the paper might be of some use to you as giving sound humanistic reasons why Training on the level of immediate, non-verbal experience — training in which mushrooms etc. can play their part — is so important.

Yours

AWM
